The Beacon Hills Warlock chapter 1

Outside the town of Beacon Hills

a man rides into town on a motor bike he stops the bike outside a house and removes His helmet revealing an 18 year old boy with blue eyes and brown hair".

His name's Alec

As he reaches out and pushes open the door and steps inside he remembers what happened to make him leave years ago

Flashback Alec was 10

Alec was with in his room completely freaking out as earlier he had just burned his brother by touching him he sat on his bed and tried to get his heart rate under control.

His heard the argument of his parents as they rushed past when something at the window caught his attention.

He stood up and made it over and picked it up and unfolded it.

Alec mccall I know what's up with you I knew your real mother and can help you understand meet me in the forest as soon as possible".

Talia

Alec crumpled the note and watched from the window as his parents drive away before.

He carefully opened the door of his room and went downstairs and excited his home

Making his way into the forest he felt strange but wanting the truth overwhelmed any sense of doubt and he kept going until he reached the location.

Finding a woman with her back turned as he approached she turned.

"Welcome my friend".

Alec approached "what do you know about these things I can do and my real mother".

Talia faced him "there's nothing to be afraid off take a seat and I will explain".

Alec sat down on a tree log and listened to the explanation.

5 years later

Alec went with talia so he could understand and master his abilities which took a while but he got it down

He was in the training room he heard the others next door using his powers to stretch out his hearing but kept hitting the target.

He stopped when he sensed a presence behind him he spun round not realising he was still holding his fireball and threw it.

"Is that how you treat your friends Alec" as talia blocked the strike before dissolving the ball"

Alec watched "what's wrong" talia paced the room before looking at him seriously "it's time for you to meet the coven leader but first there's something you need to know".

"You have a sister" Alec was shocked he turned away before "how could I not know this and on the subject why was I adopted anyway".

Talia went to answer when another voice spoke "let me handle this sister he is my son after all".

The woman nodded "of course amelia and stepped out of the room alec looked at the woman who spoke "I have a lot to tell you".

She was about to start when an explosion rocked the room the force being strong enough to knock Alex on his feet".

Amelia helped Alec up when Talia ran into the room "sister we've been attacked its him.

Amelia nodded "I'll order the evacuation you get my son out of here".

Talia nodded "okay she started to pull on Alec arm but Alec stopped "wait what's going on".

Amelia knelt down by Alec "it's a long story and we don't have time to tell know talia take him to the sanctuary".

I'll be right behind you Alec reluctantly followed Talia out of the room.

Amelia watched before she walked out the room she ran down the corridor when she heard the fighting and headed in that direction finding one of the elders of the coven on the floor out cold.

She knelt down to check on them when there was laughter "hello my old friend did you miss me".

Amelia turned to the sound seeing a man wearing black "chaos or Michael was it I don't know what you call yourself now".

Chaos laughed "well if you want to know why I am here I have come to destroy you and the coven but also to take your other child like I took your precious Freya".

Amelia eyes lit up "you will pay for that" chaos laughed "oh don't be like that I want to introduce you to someone".

He stepped aside as out of the shadows next to him stepped a woman amelia's face dropped.

"Freya" she started to say but chaos cut her off "she not your little girl any more she is under my control".

Looking at Freya "go find the boy bring him to me".

Freya didn't speak but left the room chaos laughed "ah where were we oh I remember".

He flicked his hand and amelia was sent flying backwards she recovered quickly and started to fight.

With Alec.

He followed talia as she led him out of the base when she felt something and grabbed him pulling him out of sight as a girl walked past.

Alec looked at talia who was wearing a shocked face and was about to run out when she grabbed his arm "no don't what you gonna say hey I'm your brother".

Alec stopped trying to move "and besides she does not look like the girl I know something wrong with her".

Alec was about to ask what happened when he was grabbed by one of the creatures "mistress we've got him".

Freya who wasn't too far ahead turned and walked over "hello brother I see mother has finally brought you out of hiding"

Alec didn't know what to do when the creature holding him crumpled to the floor talia stepped out from where she was.

Freya laughed "well this is a real treat my aunt talia I'm not really impressed".

Talia ignored her and motioned for her to get behind him".

Alec started to obey".

But Freya spoke "yes go on brother be a coward Alec turned on her and without warning threw out his hand sending her flying".

Freya jumped back to her feet "foolish boy you have nothing compared to my power she held a fireball in her hand and threw it Alec.

Who was caught off guard when talia jumped in front of him getting hit and thrown aside by the spell.

She recovered and pulled him behind her while blocking blasts from Freya "get out of here".

And blasted the fire ball Freya was throwing it exploded knocking Freya back giving them time to run.

As they were running suddenly talia stopped when she felt something she turned to Alec "you need to run take this it will lead you to a safe house I will meet you there with any surviving coven"

She pushed a note into his hand Alec nodded and ran away from the sound of the fighting.

Once out of sight he looked back and pulled out the note and read it.
